FELLOWSHIP SUNDAY HELP NEEDED!

Many Sundays throughout the year we offer donuts and coffee after each of the Masses. There are a couple Sunday's where we still could use a few extra hands. If you would like to help, it is easy. After the Mass you usually attend, you help in serving the donuts and coffee and set up for the next Mass. This is a great opportunity to meet other parishioners as you work. The dates where we still need help are January 5th and April 5th. If you (and/or your family) would like to help out at any of these two fellowships, please call Christian Service at 248-476-7677, ext. 204.

3rd Annual Italian Day at the Market

The 3rd Annual Italian Day at the Market in Downtown Farmington draws a record crowd and visits at Catholic Parish Faith Booth.

A wonderful time was had by all and Catholic evangelization was on the forefront. Fr. Derik Peterman from Our Lady of Sorrows addressed a large crowd at this year's Italian Day at the Farmington Farmer's Market, noting the Feast Day of Our Lady. He spoke openly about the feast day, faithfulness, and the significance of religious processions. The procession was accompanied by strolling accordion, mandolin music and everybody singing praises to Immaculate Mary. Coordinated by St. Gerald member Gerryanna Luscri and Walt Gajewski Market Manager, the event draws over 5,000 people annually. The Faith Booth hosted by St. Gerald and Our Lady of Sorrows provided rosaries, religious items and books, took prayer requests, and provided parish information. Be sure to keep posted for next year's event and enjoy the food, music fun and faith with the community.

Contact Gerryanna Luscri if you would like to help at the Faith Booth at future events. Email gerryanna.youthministry@gmail.com or call 248-476-7677, ext. 208.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

If you saw someone dead come to life tomorrow, what would you change about your life? Would you say "nothing"? That's what Jesus seems to hope. After all, we already know what to do. In this Sunday's Gospel, a rich man and a poor man pass away, the former to damnation and the latter to peaceful rest alongside the Jewish patriarchs. The rich man asks if the poor man can appear to his brothers and advise them to live a more virtuous life. The parable offers a strong rebuke: "They have Moses and the prophets. Let them listen to them." In other words, they should already know what to do.

We, too, know what to do. More than Moses, Jesus Christ himself has spoken, and continues to speak through his Church. The rich man did not heed the wise words, despite knowing them. If we are convicted against certain Christian teachings in our heart, how much good will miraculous "proofs" do? We know more than the law and the prophets — we know the prophetic law of love proclaimed by Jesus Christ. Are we living like we believe it?

Where in our lives are we like the rich man? Do we know how to treat the poor but still we ignore them in our excess? Do we know the third commandment, but the Sunday liturgy feels "optional" when other weekend commitments arise? Have we heard Christ's teachings on sexuality, but consider them out of reach for us? We have received a great many truths as Christian people. We are blessed by God with the sacraments and the abundance of His graces. We have what we need — in Him — to begin to live a virtuous life now.

"But Abraham replied, 'They have Moses and the prophets. Let them listen to them.' He said, 'Oh no, father Abraham, but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.' Then Abraham said, 'If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead.'" — Lk 16:29-31

KNIGHTS CORNER

You and your spouse are invited to the October 19 Installation of Officers' Ceremony and Dinner

Be on the lookout for an invitation to the Council's formal Installation of Officers' Ceremony and Dinner on October 19. Council members and their spouses/others are being invited to the festivities which will open with Mass at 5 PM. The Installation ceremony, which will involve the wives, will follow in the Church and then dinner will be served in the Social Hall.

Officers will hold their regular meeting Tuesday with the major agenda item being a decision on what to do with the proceeds from our annual Tootsie Roll sale after the October 12-13 weekend masses. The money raised goes to support the mentally challenged. Last year sale proceeds were split between the Community Living Centers (CLC) and the Farmington Special Olympics. The CLC is based in Farmington and was founded by the mother of Tony Wagner, a former parishioner and Knight.

With the arrival of autumn, it is flu shot time. The Parish Health Ministry, headed by Barbara Seabolt, wife of Brother Thom Seabolt, will have flu shots available Sunday, October 13 from 9:30 AM to Noon. There is a signup sheet on the Health Ministry table along the south wall of the Social Hall. There is a special shot recommended for seniors; it covers an additional flu strain. Most insurance plans cover the cost of the shot. Without insurance the cost is $33 for the regular dose and $50 for the senior dose.

Hats off to the Knights who worked last Sunday's Pancake Breakfast. Led by DGK Frank Gariepy, the pancake operation is a well-oiled machine. Great food, great service! Thanks to Ron Bywalec, Brian Gulick, Michael Huskey, Bob Kuhr, Len Lemanski, Pat McDonald, Roger Stacey, PGK Fred Gerometta, Bill Croitori and Terry Grabinski. Also to Scott Horsburgh, Arnie Lemieux, Ken May, Tom McPhail, Mike O'Dea, Bob Purol, PGK Bruce Roberts, Richard Rosowski, Thom Seabolt, PGK Richard Smith, Richard VandenBrul, Dennis Weberlein and Jerry Weigold.

Life Chain is a peaceful public witness of pro-life individuals standing for 90 minutes praying for our nation and for an end to abortion. It is a visual statement of solidarity by the Christian community that abortion kills children and that the Church supports the sanctity of human life from the moment of conception until natural death. Traditionally some of our Knights have stood on the west side of Middlebelt Road between 5 and 6 Mile Roads. They will be back Sunday, October 6 from 2 PM to 3:30 PM. You are invited to join them.
