St. Gerald keeps a Book of Remembrance in our gathering space during the month of November. We invite you to write the names of your deceased loved ones in this book at any time during the month of November. The deceased listed in the Book of Remembrance are remembered during the Prayers of the Faithful at each of our weekend Masses in November.

We realize that this time following the death of your loved one has been a difficult time for you and your family and we pray that you might find comfort in our Lord and our Blessed Mother, Mary. Please know that you are remembered in the prayers of our Parish community.

A PRAYER FOR VETERANS

Heavenly Father, King and Lord,
You instill in all of Your creation an order and value.

You call Your children "very good."

We surrender to You
the conflicts that tear your family apart.

We pray for an end to blindness that places pride, greed, power, and selfishness above human dignity and brotherly love.

We pray in gratitude
for all of those who have defended peace, virtue, and justice with honor.

We pray especially for those who have suffered in mind and body
from the ravages of war.

Let Your Kingdom come!

May Your peace that surpasses all understanding
reign in our hearts and in our world.

Amen.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

"Some Saducees, those who deny that there is a resurrection, came forward and put this question to Jesus ..." In this Sunday's Gospel, the Saducees avoid their real question. Is there a resurrection from the dead or not? Rather than ask this question point blank, the Saducees try to prove their point through a roundabout, unrealistic scenario. Jesus cuts straight to the question behind the question, citing Scripture passages relating to the resurrection.

The Saducees are trying to trick Jesus. While we may not intend to stump God, our doubts and questions may have more in common with the Saducees than we care to admit. Doubts are part and parcel of life in a fallen world. Still, there are different ways we can word our doubts to ourselves, God, and others. When we're struggling, truly struggling, about some article of faith, do we admit it? Or do we cloak it with other, obtuse questions to hide the nature of our concern?

Have you considered leaving the Church over the hypocrisy of some of her members and leaders? Perhaps the real question is: "How can a place blessed by God and instituted by Christ have this evil in it? Can I reconcile with the concept that an institution has an admixture of good and bad? What do I expect from others, from myself? What responsibility do I have to try and remedy evil in an institution I'm part of?" Perhaps you've wondered about the nature of romantic love, and if God is love, does He really care so much about the details of this particular scenario? Perhaps the real question is: "Can my mind wrap around the concept of a God whose law seems — on the surface, in this situation — to make people unhappy? What is the relationship between the moral law and human flourishing?" These aren't easy questions, but they are more honest ones. This week, don't be afraid of your deeper questions! Bring them to God, to someone you trust, and to yourself. ©LPI

Notice: St. Gerald is equipped with a hearing assistance system. Please ask an usher to help you with a receiver if needed for Mass.

Say one Hail Mary for our Parish today!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Thanksgiving Day Is Coming!

Thanksgiving will be here before you know it, and you will soon be saying, "Pass me the mashed potatoes, please." This November holiday has its roots in American history and has grown into a day where we remember all the things for which we are thankful: country, family, friends, health, etc. Unfortunately, we can find ourselves so caught up with travel plans and buying the perfect turkey or ham that we let the day pass us by, and all we can focus on is how much we ate and who won the day's football games. That's why it is time NOW to begin reflecting daily of all things, great and small, that we are thankful for in life.

Gratitude is a key characteristic of a good Everyday Steward, but it does not develop in us without effort. In the coming days, we can contemplate all those things God has given us. If it helps, we can create a written list and bring it with us to the Thanksgiving dinner table. The point is that too often we take so many gifts for granted, and unless we pause and purposely reflect, we miss the chance to give thanks. A healthy and hearty heart filled with gratitude can make the highs in life that much higher and the lows easier to bear. Increased gratitude will also bring us closer to the source of all those good gifts, our God.

So, what will Thanksgiving be like for you this year? You have some time to make it something more than it has been in the past. The choice is yours.

KNIGHTS CORNER

Keep Christ in Christmas Manger Magnets to Go on Sale Later This Month; 2020 Dues Statements Coming Too

If you haven't noticed, the Council's corner of the Social Hall has a neater look, thanks to PGK Rich Smith. He has hung our latest Star Award and rearranged the other hardware, grouping our six Star Awards so they are more prominent. He also repositioned the photo of our Grand Knights.

By the way, our Council winning six Star Awards in the first 14 years is quite a deal, a feat accomplished by few Councils. If you helped with winning those awards, you may take a bow. And remember, according to a public relations industry adage "It ain't bragging if it is true."

Later this month, Brother Brian Gulick will lead the sale of Manger Scene magnets that are part of the K of C's drive to "Keep Christ in Christmas". If you can help Brian after the masses during the November 23-24 weekend, give him a call at 248-231-9910. He will have the magnets available at the masses in subsequent weekends while the supply lasts. The Council also joined other area Councils in purchasing outdoor billboards that soon will be appearing in the Detroit Metro area featuring the K of C logo and the legend "Keep Christ in Christmas."

Also, later this month, Financial Secretary Bob Kuhr will be sending 2020 statements via e-mail to the members who use that service. Others will get a paper statement via the U.S. mail. Included with either statement will be a "Take Ten for Charity" appeal for an optional $10 donation. This money goes to the State Council and is used to help fund dozens of charities. Among those receiving grants are Guest House, St. Vincent Home in Lansing, Catholic radio, The Center for Women, the Solanus Casey Center, St. Anne's Church on Mackinac Island plus many more.

There will be another major degree ceremony December 8 at Immaculate Conception Council in Garden City. About 10 of our more active members still lack the advanced degrees of our Order. The ceremony requires only a couple hours of your time and will greater broaden your understanding and appreciation of your Knighthood. There is no cost to the individual Knight. See PGK Smith for more details.
